Savannah, GA based illustrator, Dani Congdon, has been exploring visual language through design and illustration for several years. She graduated from Kendall College of Art and Design with a Bachelor of Fine Art in Graphic Design and minor of Illustration in 2017. She went on to earn a Master of Fine Art in Illustration from the Savannah College of Art and Design in 2023. Her work has been featured in Applied Arts (2021 and 2022) and Creative Quarterly (2023) magazines. She had her first gallery exhibition in May of 2023 for Women's History Month at Nomad Society in Savannah, GA.

Her work explores the stories that weave together human existence. Interested in telling the accounts less often told in the hegemonic narrative of history, Dani focuses on the female perspective by creating a body of work that celebrates the power and impact of femininity.
